Holy Name of Mary School Student and Family Expectations For iPad Use

(a copy may be accessed on school website for reference at hnmschool.org "Forms" tab)

Student Expectations:

I will use the student device as an empowered student to put forth my best effort to be an active individual and to be a faithful disciple.

I will conduct myself with respect for my school, my classmates, the faculty and staff of Holy Name of Mary School, my property, and myself.

I understand this computer is for educational purposes only, and I will use the student device in a responsible and focused manner.

I understand that the use of the iPads and all school-owned devices are a privilege, and if I do not meet the expectations given to me, I may lose this privilege.

Family Expectations:

Read each of the following statements:

We will monitor our child's use of the student device at home.

We will ensure that the iPad is kept in its proper case that is provided.

We understand that the use of the iPad is a privilege, and if we do not meet the expectations given to us, we may lose this privilege.

I have read the full Acceptable Use Policy and the Holy Name of Mary School Student and Family Expectations and agree with their stated conditions.
